

Maya C. Gupta

135 Clay St., Unit H, Santa Cruz, CA 95060
267-209-0522
maya.gupta@yale.edu

EDUCATION

Yale University, 2008 – present

Ph.D., Departments of Classics and Philosophy (expected 2018)

Dissertation Title: “Instating Punishment: Guilt, Law and Rhetoric in Aristotle’s Athens”

Advisors: Verity Harte and Victor Bers

Oxford University, 2007 – 2008

Visiting Student, Litterae Humaniores

University of Pennsylvania, 2004 – 2007

B.A. (2008), summa cum laude

Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) and Classics, with honors in the major

AREAS OF CONCENTRATION

—Ancient Philosophy (moral philosophy; philosophy of action; philosophy of biology)

—Ancient Political and Legal Thought (Greek law; punishment; constitutional theory)

—Greek Literature (oratory and rhetorical theory; tragedy)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor, Philosophy 144, University of California, Santa Cruz, Spring 2017

Instructor, Philosophy 11, University of California, Santa Cruz, Winter 2017

Instructor, Greek 120, Yale University, Spring 2015

Instructor, Accelerated Introduction to Latin, Center for Prison Education, 2014-15

Mentor, Capstone Project: Platonic and Aristotelian Psychology, Guilford High School, 2014-15

Tutor, Environmental Justice, Center for Prison Education, Fall 2014

Instructor, Latin 131, Yale University, Fall 2014.

Instructor, Greek 120S, Yale University, Summer 2014.

Instructor, Latin 120, Yale University, Spring 2014.

Teaching Fellow, Latin 110, Yale University, Fall 2012.

Teaching Fellow, Greek and Roman Mythology (Writing Requirement), Yale University, Spring 2012.

Teaching Fellow, Introduction to Ancient Philosophy, Yale University, Fall 2011.

Teaching Fellow, Greek 110, Yale University, Spring 2011.

Fundamentals of Teaching: Humanities. Yale University, Fall 2010.

AWARDS

Berkeley, Biddle and Woolsey Travel Grant

Stavros Niarchos Grant

Summer 2009

Summer 2007-2008

PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

“Crackpots: Punishment, Persuasion, and the Cult of Philosophy in Plato’s Gorgias.” Yale University, April 2014.

“The Law Won: Fairness and Justice in Athens and in Aristotle.” Yale University, October 2014.

“Off Topic: Punishment and Emotion in Aristotle’s Rhetoric.” Yale University, May 2013.

“Eudemian Ethics, 1233a31-1234a3.” Cornell University, August 2012.

“Aristotle’s De Memoria, 453a14-453b11.” University of Toronto, May 2012.

FIELDWORK

Mount Lykaion Excavation and Survey Project, Ano Karyes, Greece.

2007-2009

CONFERENCE ORGANIZATION

Hippias Major: A Graduate Colloquium. Yale University, May 2013.

SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

Yale-King’s College Republic Seminar: Republic VIII. Yale University, June 2014.

Yale-King’s College Republic Seminar: Republic VII. King’s College, London, June 2013.

Hippias Major: A Graduate Colloquium. Yale University, May 2013.

Eudemian Ethics Workshop. Cornell University, April 2013.

Yale-King’s College Republic Seminar: Republic VI. Yale University, June 2012.

Yale-King’s College Republic Seminar: Republic V. King’s College, London, June 2011.

Yale-King’s College Republic Seminar: Republic IV. Yale University, June 2010.

WRITING AND EDITORIAL EXPERIENCE

Editorial Assistant for Verity Harte (Professor of Philosophy, Yale University), 2010-2013

Editorial Assistant for Paul North (Associate Professor of German, Yale University), 2011

Editorial Assistant for Tobin Nellhaus (Librarian for Philosophy, Media, and Performing Arts, Yale University), 2009-2011

Editorial Assistant for James Pawelski (Professor of Religious Studies, University of Pennsylvania), 2006-2007

LANGUAGES

Spoken: English, French, Spanish

Read: English, French, Latin, Greek, German, Italian, Spanish